NEWS RELEASE

National Registered Agents, Inc. and MyLLCAgreement.com Announce Online Partnership

Combines NRAI's Renowned Registered Agent Services with MyLLCAgreement.com's Cutting Edge Online LLC Operating Agreement Application

New York, NY – December 9, 2009 - National Registered Agents, Inc. (NRAI) and MyLLCAgreement.com announced today a strategic partnership designed to help new business owners protect themselves with access to the leading registered agent and LLC Operating Agreement services. The partnership combines NRAI's deep knowledge and experience providing business owners with registered agent services along with MyLLCAgreement.com's state of the art customized online LLC Operating Agreement application. This strategic partnership helps entrepreneurs address their number one objective – protecting their new business.

New business owners will have direct access to the leading online LLC Operating Agreement application and registered agent service provider. Together, MyLLCAgreement.com and NRAI will help entrepreneurs better protect their business interests as well as keep their new entities in good standing.

"NRAI is constantly striving to provide its customers with the necessary tools and services to keep their companies in compliance with statutory requirements. LLC Operating Agreements, by design, are the critical entity governance document needed to manage an LLC of any flavor. Making available myllcagreement.com's document preparation services to our clients is simply a natural fit," said Stephen W. Craig, Executive Vice President and Co-Founder of NRAI. "In the current economic environment, new business LLC's are forming every day. NRAI takes seriously its obligation to continue to make sure our clients have access to the best resources available. The myllcagreement.com service is a critical component of that obligation," said Dennis E. Howarth, Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder of NRAI.

"MyLLCAgreement.com is committed to partnering with the best-in-class companies to help better serve our customers," said Adam Bergman, president of MyLLCAgreement.com. "By partnering with a leading company like NRAI, we bring together MyLLCAgreement's strength in creating customized LLC Operating Agreements with NRAI's registered agent expertise to offer leading-edge online services to help new businesses protect themselves."

This newly formed partnership will allow both companies to better serve their respective client base and grow together.
